Owing to the fact that the time of departure had been printed, the strangers miles from home had produced some in town—and, indeed, some of the native Washingtonians—who took advantage of the pleasant afternoon, gathered on the sidewalks of the White House lawn and something wonderful to behold. But along Pennsylvania avenue almost to the there are predictions that the real thing

THE FLEET.

Hurrah for the Fleet! Give it honor and glory To shine down the ages in song and in story.

And show to the nations our Flag is unfuried

To bless and continue the peace of the world.

Harrah for the Fleet of the great Yankee Nation! That circled the world with splendid oblation, And comes back to pert to be feasted and toasted, And tell of the glory of which we have boasted.

Hurrah for the Fleet and its splendor of action, And the hearts of the country without any faction. That welcomes and honors our sailors to-day, Who laugh and who cheer in the great Chesapeake Bay.

What a change since the Monitor-Merriman field When brother fought brother for what he thought right; And to-day all assembled beneath the Old Flag That waves over ocean and mountain and crag!
